DAILY COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

The Scalpers' Knife the Prominent Feature in Wheat. The Market Closing Fluctuating and Weak—Chicago Live Stock and Home and General Reports.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—[Special to the Bee.]—There was a nervous and more or less unsettled tone ruling throughout today, which was the market's most attractive feature for the week, when the way, did about all the business transacted. The leading features in the market were private cables and the weather of the former came in pretty stiff before noon, though those to the board just before the opening were weak and heavy. It has become since a regular thing for these two classes of foreign news to be wholly apart in their reading that with either one at hand the tone of the other can be very closely gauged at. These private cables, in which a most conclusive opinion is embodied, contributed a little showing of strength, and with light receipts at all primary points combined to advance January wheat at the opening it fell to 87 1/2, which was the market's closing price. The next movement was in the nature of an advance to 88 1/2. The market was very active, however, very slight. Until the last hour of the market, which was between 87 1/2 and 88 1/2, but when the whole lot weakened and fell to 87 1/2. The close of the morning session was about steady at quotations.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—[Special to the Bee.]—Cattle—The market ruled steady at the start. Moderate receipts seemed to play no important part in the traffic for the day. Buyers held off, hoping thereby to fill their orders at lower prices. Salesmen as usual, bauldly held on to their stock, and pointed to the fact that the run was on their side, and they were not compelled to be in a hurry to sell. There were a large number of useful natives on sale, and a good percentage of prime natives. Toward noon there was more activity, and the market ruled steady on the best native and good shipping cattle. Among the sales were ten loads of grass Texans, averaging 100 to 105 lbs., at $3.00 to $3.10. Shipping cattle, 100 to 120 lbs., at $2.50 to $2.75. Through Texas cattle sold at $2.00 to $2.25 for cows and $2.25 to $2.50 for steers. The market was active, and prices a bit higher than on Saturday, the best native making $3.35 to $3.40, and best shipping $3.00 to $3.10. Packing and shipping, 100 to 120 lbs., at $2.50 to $2.75. Light weights, 100 to 110 lbs., at $2.00 to $2.25. Heavy weights, 120 to 130 lbs., at $2.50 to $2.75.

FINANCIAL.
